The Louisiana Commission is an its way to New Orleans and will organize this week. The hope is that if one Legislature can be organized out of the two now existing which will be recognized as legal by both parties then that body can showing that the motive was the expectasettle all disputed questions without the tion of being able to pilfer a little money interference of the President. A further suggestion is also made that notwith. standing the fact that Packard may have have sometimes been inspired by a been successsul on the ticket in November, there may have such changes in the ductor, an engineer, a fireman, or some condition of affairs there as to make individual passenger known to be Nichols now the de facto Governor.

The Troops Removed.

Gen. Sherman has ordered the troops to be removed from the State House on Tuesday next at 12 m. This order is to carry out the instructions by the President to the Secretary of War. The President says: "In my opinion there does not now exist such domestic violence as is contemplated by the Constitution as ground upon which the military power of the National Government may be invoked for the defence of the State-There are, it is true, grave and serious disputes as to the rights of certain claimants to the Chief Executive office of that State, but these are to be settled and determined, not by the Executive of the United States, but by such orderly and peaceable means as may be provided by the constitution and laws of the State. I feel assured that no resort to violence is contemplated in any quarter, but that on the contrary the disputes in question are to be solely settled by such peaceful remedies as the constitution and laws of the State provide. Under these circumstances and in this confidence, I now deem it proper to take action in accordance with the principles I annou .ced when I eu-

The Railroad Wrecker.

Every condition of human lite and society has its own drawbacks. There is no peculiar benefit or blessing that is not balanced by some corresponding disadvantage or peril. In barbarous communities their are no infernal machines, and such moral mon-ters as the "Dynamite Fiend" are unknown. The crimes that prevail are of the primitive and simple kind that have been known everywhere from the beginning of human cans: history. But with the growth of civilization and the advancement of science actuated now as at all times heretofore, crime becomes more subtle, more mysterious and more dangerous. The 'rail differences as to the lawful government road wrecker" is the latest and most in that State upon the basis of jus ice and monstrous development of American right. progress.
